

2024 PAUMCS Annual Conference
Worship Leader
Joyclyn Wilson

Singer/Songwriter/Actress/Writer Joyclyn Wilson is an eclectic blend of soul & pop from the blues capital of the world, Memphis, TN. She pours out her heart through inspiring lyrics and sultry vocals captivating audiences while driving them to build “Something Beautiful (2019)” for the future and “Push Through (2020)” their struggles in today’s uncertain society. Her 2020 sophomore single “Push Through’s” music video was selected for the Indie Memphis 2020 Film Festival along with four other additional regional and international film festivals. She performs locally in Memphis with a group of Christian creatives called the Seed and Soul Collective that hosts positive

Christian music showcases four times a year in a non-traditional worship setting. Their latest concert was at the Memphis Listening Lab in the Crosstown Concourse. From 2014-2020, She served the UMW Memphis Conference in several positions, including communications, education and interpretation, youth and conference speaker and Dean of Mission U. Musically she served the UMW as worship leader for Mission U and Spiritual Growth Retreats. Currently serves as a worship leader at One Accord International Church in Memphis, TN. She released her third single “Affirmations for Me” released in 2022. And performed as a featured artist with her band “Soulfye” for Faith and Family night at the 2023 Delta Fair and Music festival. Last but not least, she passionately educates the next generation of young creatives in music and the entertainment business as a performing arts educator at Memphis Business Academy.

Come and follow along as her musical journey unfolds @JustJoyclyn on Instagram, YouTube and Facebook. For booking information, send an email justjoyclyn@gmail.com or click this link <https://linktr.ee/justjoyclyn>.

JustJoyclyn
Believer/Creative/Educator
Co-Founder of Hearts in ACTSion
IG & Facebook @ JustJoyclyn
<https://linktr.ee/justjoyclyn>
870-739-0850